1. A quorum was established and the meeting was called to order at 5:33pm.
2. The March 15, 2023 minutes were accepted as written.
3. Budget Update: Bridget Johnston reported the invoice for the mural flyers and signs was paid in the amount of $146.50 and the current remaining budget authority for FY23 is $34,410.
4. Staff Reports
 - a. Bridget Johnston reported the resolution re-establishing the Helena Public Art Committee was passed at the Commission meeting March 27, 2023. The passing of this resolution removed the Commission representative and the Helena Citizen's Council representatives. It also creates a youth position and leaves eight members at large. There will be no changes to any current members' terms. The resolution also lays out that the committee will present a report to the Commission this coming May and then in the following years, a report in October. This will be the time when the committee will make recommendations on their detailed projects for the following fiscal year.
 - b. Bridget Johnston reported there will be a Joint City-County Boards member training on Thursday, May 11th beginning at 5:00PM in the Civic Center Ballroom and online via Zoom.

5. Centennial Tunnel Mural Artist Selection – Bridget explained that each unidentified artist’s submission will be displayed on the screen. Each committee member has a scoring sheet and is asked to score as we go through each submission. After each submission has been reviewed and scored, Bridget will compile all scores for totals. Composite scores are attached. Discussion was had regarding the submissions and scores.

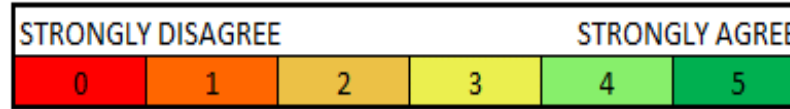

Jennie Stapp motioned for submission #3 Untitled to be the top recommendation, Max Hay seconded the motion. The motion passed. Max Hay motioned for submission #7 Untitled to be the second recommendation, Jennie Stapp seconded the motion. The motion passed.
