

The following items for annexation are provided with this application.

- 1) The annexation application form.
- 2) Signed development application provided with the subdivision application.
- 3) A vicinity map is provided.
- 4) The preliminary plat is provided which includes the boundary description for the property to be annexed.
- 5) A storm water plan is provided with the Preliminary Engineering Report provided with the subdivision application.
- 6) The vicinity map and preliminary plat are provided. The subdivision application includes development plans and proposed uses as well as preliminary engineering needs for the subdivision.